Here's what your peers are saying about ACE Virtuoso:

"With Virtuoso, David & David foster a community in which even leading coaches can experiment, make mistakes, receive constructive and supportive feedback, and stretch in ways I never previously could over 20 years in practice. They have fostered a culture of continuous development in which my long standing assumptions are tested, and new techniques and mental models are introduced. In valuing lifelong learning, I find this experience hard to beat."

John Reed

"I discovered the valuable lesson of paying attention to what the clients wants next vs. what I see for them as well as the importance of continuing to invest in myself."

Deborah Naish

"The complexity portions really shaped my work and new business model. Expanding my thinking beyond my coach training is probably the most useful thing so far!"

Annette Brackin

"The coaching demos have been incredible – it is vital for me to see coaching excellence at work."

Regina Zafonte

"I have learned to become more comfortable with being uncomfortable and how it expands my perspectives in possibilities of coaching."
